My dear William

The second Cheque has reached me, and I have had the satisfaction of paying my creditors. You will be glad to hear that I have obtained a pension from the Spanish Government of £40 per annum, with the benefit of survivorship, should Rosa remain unmarried.

I hope Miss^{rs} Gladgate will have the attention to send you a copy of the last letter, as I shall then not be under the necessity of troubling them in future with enquiries.

The aspect of England is most gloomy at present. I look for the Morning papers with much anxiety. With love to your wife Believe me to remain

Yours very sincerely
J. Heathcote

My dear Mr. Looman

Yesterday I received the enclosed letter, with a list of enquiries, which I also enclose! Do you know Mr. Thomas, or have any idea of the meaning of his enquiries. It is all Greek to me. Yours in haste

J. Heats de Lemos
